

Chiron Vaccines, Speke

Description

Large production facility for the production of the flu vaccine, which consisted of complex steel structure, internal sub stations to house the HV incoming power requirements and also partial internal fit out. 3 storey office building was built to the front elevation of the production facility which was fitted out to high spec and laboratory standards together with complete external works packages and landscaping.

Client

Intercity Pharma

Value

£12,286,771

Type of Contract

Design and Build

Consultants

Architect: Austin Smith Lord
Engineer: Roscoe Capita

