

Cofi Roc, Caernarfon

Description

The clients business had to remain operational Pochin erected a scaffold around the building complete with a temporary roof, the existing roof was stripped off the internal walls demolished down to level 2 new foundations were cast to the front of the building and pad stones cast on top of the old walls to take the new steel frame to brace the building and carry the new roof the roof was a kalzip construction with a conservation roof on top. Level 2 new toilets for the Bar/Restaurant cloak rooms and cellars plant rooms for both the new bar/restaurant and the existing night club. Level 3 new bar/restaurant complete with kitchens raised seating areas and dance areas.

Client

Hianit Ltd

Value

£1,000,000

Type of Contract

Traditional Construction

Consultants

Architect: Aegis Consultancy Group
Engineer: Possford Duvivier

