

Centenary Way, Eccles, Manchester

Description

New Build 86,000 sq ft office development set on the banks of the Manchester Ship Canal, with associated external and underground car parking and soft landscaping. A steel frame construction with metal decking and concrete floors. Externally the building is clad with curtain walling to the office areas, and stone screens to the main entrance and stair cores.

Client

Morson Group Plc —
Centenary Property Developments Ltd.

Value

£8.9m

Type of Contract

JCT Deigns & Build Contract 2005 Edition

Consultants

Architect - AFL
Services Consultant - Troup Bywaters &
Anders